IC 33-23-16-14

Deferred prosecution

Sec. 14. (a) A problem solving court, without entering a judgment of conviction, may defer proceedings against an individual and place the individual in a problem solving court program under this section only if:

- (1) the individual meets the conditions for eligibility set forth in section 13(1) and 13(2) of this chapter;
- (2) the individual pleads guilty and consents to the referral; and
- (3) the judge of the problem solving court, the prosecuting attorney, and the individual all agree upon certain conditions for the individual's participation in the problem solving court program and on the duration of those conditions.

(b) If the judge of a problem solving court determines, after a hearing, that:

- (1) an individual participating in a problem solving court program under this section violated a condition established under subsection (a)(3); or
- (2) the period during which the conditions established under subsection (a)(3) were in effect expired before the individual successfully completed each condition established by the problem solving court;

the problem solving court may terminate the individual's participation in the problem solving court program.

(c) When an individual's participation in a problem solving court program has been terminated under subsection (b), the problem solving court shall:

- (1) enter a judgment of conviction against the individual;
- (2) refer the individual's case back to the court that referred the case to the problem solving court to allow the referring court to enter a judgment of conviction against the individual; or
- (3) otherwise dispose of the case.

(d) If an individual fulfills the conditions established by a problem solving court under subsection (a), the problem solving court shall:

- (1) dismiss the charges against the individual;
- (2) refer the individual's case back to the court that referred the case to the problem solving court to allow the referring court to dismiss the charges against the individual; or
- (3) otherwise dispose of the case.

As added by P.L.108-2010, SEC.4.

IC 33-23-16-15

Individuals with nonsuspendible sentences

Sec. 15. (a) A problem solving court may place an individual in a problem solving court program under this section only if:

- (1) the individual is convicted of an offense that is nonsuspendible and the individual meets the conditions for eligibility set forth in section 13(1) and 13(2) of this chapter; and

(2) the judge of the problem solving court and the individual agree upon the conditions for the individual's participation in the problem solving court program.

(b) If the requirements of subsection (a) are met in the case of an individual, the court may:

(1) order the execution of the individual's nonsuspendible sentence and stay execution of all or part of the nonsuspendible part of the individual's sentence pending the individual's successful completion of a problem solving court program; and

(2) suspend all or part of the suspendible part of the individual's nonsuspendible sentence, place the individual on probation for the suspended part of the sentence, and require as a condition of probation that the person successfully complete a problem solving court program.

(c) If an individual fails to successfully complete and has been terminated from a problem solving court program under this section, the problem solving court may:

(1) if the person is serving the nonsuspendible part of the person's sentence:

(A) lift the stay of execution of the nonsuspendible part of the individual's sentence and order the individual to serve all or a part of the nonsuspendible sentence; or

(B) otherwise dispose of the case; or

(2) if the individual is serving the suspendible part of the individual's sentence:

(A) order all or a part of the individual's suspendible sentence to be executed; or

(B) otherwise dispose of the case.

(d) If an individual successfully completes a problem solving court program under this section, the problem solving court may:

(1) waive execution of the nonsuspendible part of the individual's sentence; or

(2) otherwise dispose of the case.

As added by P.L.108-2010, SEC.4.
